This story is about a young 19 years old boy, Nitin. He went to visit his Mother's Village, Premapur, for the first time with his mother where he encounters some heavenly experiences. Was it real or a delusion of his teenage mind? Let's find out in the story.

The next day, when I woke up, I saw that little girl, cleaning the floor. She was facing me. I could see her deep cleavage. As, she was wearing a salwar, I noticed her cute little boobs popping out of it. I saw that she was not wearing any bra probably because she was poor and village girls didn't prefer them all the time. I was lost somewhere deep inside her cleavage. Then I suddenly realized that she noticed me. She said nothing to me and again got busy with her work. I felt guilty for that but the evil inside me was excited to bang her hard. Thinking of those ideas, something suddenly clicked inside my mind. It was the sacred scene which I saw yesterday. I thought she somehow could know about all this. I gained the courage to ask that to her and just in that moment I heard a sound.

It was none other than my mother. She came out of the bathroom. She wrapped a towel to cover her glorious body. I could see a change in her face. She was glowing more than anything. I didn't see her face like that after my father died. I thought it's because she came to her own house and feels happy living here. She ordered the maid to go outside the room and clean the rest later. "Wow she even developed a dominant attitude". I was shocked to see her expression. She looked at me and said-

Nisha: Good morning Nitin beta. How was your sleep last night?

Me: It's pretty good mom. I had a weird dream last night.

Nisha: What's that?

Me: Some wet dreams, you know teenage things.

Nisha(giggled): It's probably should be a dream. Now let's get freshen up and go visit the village.

Me: Yeah but you should come with me. I know nothing about this village.

Nisha: It's just a small village and it's not like you will get lost somewhere. Moreover, Self-explorations are more effective. You could find something unexpected...

Me: Well, fine then I will go by my own.

As I stepped out of the bed, I realised that I had a pretty big 7-inch morning wood in my pants. It could clearly be seen from outside. To avoid any moment of embarrassment, I somehow hid it from my mother. Suddenly I noticed that she was watching the whole situation from the corner of her eyes in the reflection of the mirror. When she saw that she got caught, she smiled at me. As a poor fellow of embarrassment, I smiled her back. I went to the bathroom, masturbated while thinking of the last night moments and took a cold shower. It was so refreshing which gained my energy back.

I went downstairs and saw mami instructing the maids about what to cook. She was sweating in the heat of the kitchen. Her saree stick with her skin especially to her asses. Looks like her huge bulky asses were inviting me to eat them out but I was hungry for food now. She turned around me and said-

Mami: Hey Nitin, Good Morning! Hope you slept well yesterday.

Me: Yah mami. It's good.

Mami: Oh! beta just call me Nimmi. Mami just sounds so old for a lady like me.

Me(confused): Okay Nimmi... but I think you should take some rest. You are really sweating up.

Mami(blushed): Uff! You know it's just some stuff around here that I have to do. You sit here and have some breakfast.

After I had my breakfast, I went to visit the village. I started off by visiting a nearby temple which was nicely decorated. Then, I went to a nearby cricket ground which was at the outskirts of the village. Some junior boys were playing cricket there. I thought that I may join them. So, I went to them to ask that can I play with them. They were very surprised to see me as I am an outsider. One of them asked me what I am doing in this village. I told them everything and when I told them about my mama they all got scared as if they heard something pretty horrible. I felt something wrong with that place but I thought they might get scared of him because he was the chief of this village. So, I continued playing with them. As, I got too involved in that match, that I can't even tell when the time passed by. It was probably afternoon by now. I played a last over with them and they went to their houses. I was very thirsty by now so I stopped one of them and asked "Where can I get water nearby?". He pointed me to a foliage-filled bush and said "There is a pond inside the jungle where you can get some water". I went inside through the bush and saw an amazing view.

It was the pond which I saw when I was entering the village. The reflection of sunset mesmerizing the view with girls bathing on the bank of the pond. I noticed all the girls laughing and bathing there, were younger than me. As I rolled my eyes, I recognized one of the girl. She was none other than the young maid in my mama's house. A clean and smooth white body glazing in the light of the sunset. I lost in the aura of her beauty. When I came back from my dream, I realised that she was the only one who knows what's going on in this village. I waited there hiding behind a tree for all of them to go back. When she got to go home, I shouted from behind. She stopped and turned back to notice me. She was quite surprised so I went near her. She said "What are you doing here?". "I was just...". I stopped by her fragrance which was making me crazy. I went near her lips and landed a kiss. She was surprised by my act. She blushed and started to go back. Just then I hold her hand. She said "What are you doing is not right sir. Please go back to your house". In that point of time, I was in no mood to leave her. I pulled her towards me and started to kiss her passionately. At first, she was resisting but after time she also gave her passion into it. It felt like an eternity with her.

After some time, I proceeded to caressing her cute little breasts. They were soft and gentle. I thought of having something like this. We separated our lips and now I am sucking her breasts. She moaned loudly which echoed the whole forest. I slipped my fingers towards her soaking wet pussy and fingered her. It took around 10 mins and she cummed on my hands. I could see a face of satisfaction in her. This was the one thing she needed. Suddenly, we heard a feminine voice calling her name, "Madhu...". I said "So Madhu, it looks like someone was finding you". She smiled and went inside the forest. I checked the time. It was 7 at evening and was pretty dark outside.

I somehow reached my mama's house. When I entered, there were no one there. I checked around but everything was in place. I called my mom and mami but no one replied. I was a bit tensed up right now. So, I decided to go upstairs to check if they were there or not. As I went upstairs, I heard some loud moaning noise coming from there. I listened closely and realised it was none other than my mom. I was shocked of what's happening there. Is my nightmare really came true? Or I was just thinking too much. Every possibility were running around my mind. While, thinking these things I finally stood up in front of a door. Now there were not only one voice but more different voices coming behind the door. As I did before, I went straight to the keyhole to peek through it but couldn't see anything. All I heard was the voices. Now, I had no another options left but to jump onto the scene by opening the door. I was excited and scared at the same time. I opened the door in just one strike and I couldn't believe in my eyes...

I saw my mami lying on the bed and the maid on top of her in 69. They were naked and licking each other's pussy like there were no tomorrow. My eyes were still finding my mom in the dark. She was sitting down the bed, fingering the maid harshly with her 3 fingers deep down her pussy. They turned towards me and waited for a second to see how I react to it. My hands were shivering to see my nightmare came true right in front of my eyes. Mami stopped them and came near me and said 'You are not supposed to see this and while now you know this, I should give you a treat'. I was really confused of what she said to me. When I was going to speak to her, she shut me up with her hands. She went to the maid and said 'Bina, You know what you have to do?'. 'Yes Ma'am', the maid replied. She came near me, hold my hand and pulled me with her. My mom was watching this whole scenario but she didn't even said anything. I looked at her face. Her face was kind and sympathetic. But just then, she gave me a seductive smile. It's like she just told me 'go, enjoy and forget it'.

Bina took me to our bedroom and said me in a serious voice 'Take all your clothes off'. A day before she was submissive to mama and now she was dominating me. I was helpless at that time. So I did what she said to me. Bina, a tall and slim girl with perfectly sized boobs and ass. She has a beautiful sets of big round eyes. I undressed myself and she pushed me to the bed. She went over me and started to kiss me. I cooperated with her. The way she was kissing me shows how experienced she was. After a while, I was fully erected as I couldn't control my dick. She started to rub her thighs over it. It went for some time and now I was losing my control and I cummed on her thighs. She looked at it and said 'Impressive!'. She grabbed her boobs and put it in my mouth. I showed my tongue skills on it and she moaned with joy. It was turning her on and she cummed. She grabbed my dick and slid it in her. She doesn't have a tight pussy and it went in very smoothly. She started to move her hips and riding on my cock. "Wow she is so good at it". The strokes she maintaining was perfect. With every moment she was going crazy on me. I changed the position to Doggy and now I was thrusting her rapidly. I hold her hairs and pulled it harder. She was surprised by my bold move but was also horny. I could see her expressions in the mirror. I was pounding her harshly but it was satisfying. After around 30 minutes, I was ready to climax. I told her that I was cumming. She took my dick out and put it in her mouth giving the best blowjob I ever had. I finally couldn't hold it anymore and cummed in her mouth. She swallowed the whole thing. Then, she came near me and landed a kiss on my forehead. I was in heaven. I was so tired at that moment that I couldn't figure it out what happened. I fall on the bed and slept that night.
